

La Porte County Symphony Orchestra
Annual Board Meeting July 12, 2006

Meeting called to order at 12:15 p.m. by Marcia Morris

Marcia welcomed everyone to the luncheon and meeting.
Confirmation of Directors was made. New members of the Board were introduced.
There were no new nominees from the floor. Motion made and seconded. The new Directors were elected.

Joe Goepfrich briefly went over our financial statements.

Marcia introduced the Symphony staff, Board and musicians. Officers of Friends of the Symphony were also introduced.

Entertainment for the luncheon was provided by Hoosier Star finalist, Leland Free.

Marcia introduced Lee Rardin and thanked her for everything she has done for the Symphony. Christine Ward was also introduced and thanked for her contributions.

Marcia introduced Phil Bauman and informed us his contract has been extended until 2010. Phil then proceeded to speak about the next Symphony season.

Phil introduced our guest performer, Nic Obrovich, concert master of the La Porte County Symphony Orchestra.

Christine Ward talked about our fall fund raiser, Mystery of the Missing Maestro.

Tonya McGue presented Sheryl Edwards with Volunteer of the Year Award for her many hours of work on Hoosier Star.

Phil Bauman presented the Musician of the Year Award to Chuck Steck, recognizing his time and talent.

Marcia presented the Award of Excellence to V. Michael Drayton for the the many years he has devoted to the Symphony.

Marcia recognized the major donors.

The meeting adjourned at 1:35 p.m.